

NDYP Exec Team Notes

November 2, 2010

Present: Jennifer Dobrowski, Eric Trueblood, Amanda Lynn Moser, Brianna Strahm, and Catherine Dalzell

The meeting was called to order at 2:10 p.m. CST.

Coordinator Resignation

Catherine shared that she has submitted her formal resignation to the Center for Technology and Business (CTB) effective November 1, 2010. Upon this she has saved information regarding past program goals and organization information. This information will be given to the NDYP chairman and/or relevant committees. Catherine encouraged the existing board to work on contingency planning especially around issues at hand: Best Places to Work awards, the NDYP newsletter, and the February Legislative Social.

Jen has been in contact with CTB and the board is requesting patience over the next month before making any major decisions about the future of NDYP. Consensus was reached that we would wait to make any large decision until all options were gathered. Catherine reported that Kayla Effertz has been also helping to outline other options.

Jen reported that she will examine our incorporation efforts. Amanda gave her Nate Bouray's email, as he had helped the Dickinson Young Professionals become independently incorporated.

Upcoming Meeting

Jen went through the rundown of the agenda for the November 9 meeting.

With no further business, the meeting adjourned at 2:40 p.m. CST.
